Lend a Hand at the Harvest Festival

CSD seeks Volunteers for Annual Fall Event

Elk Grove, Calif. – A party as big as the Elk Grove Harvest Festival need lots of helpful hosts. Consider becoming a Harvest Festival volunteer. Join the Elk Grove Community Services District in hosting Elk Grove's largest family festival, the 12th Annual Elk Grove Harvest Festival, scheduled October 7-8 at Elk Grove Regional Park (9950 Elk Grove-Florin Rd.).

Volunteers help keep the fun rolling all weekend long. Shifts are available for Saturday and Sunday in a variety of Festival areas including the Kid's Zone, weigh-off area, grape and gourmet galley, stage entertainment, scarecrow alley, and pre-event set-up and clean-up.

This is a great opportunity for students, service, and religious organizations to lend a hand to their community. Time spent helping at the Festival also satisfies some schools' community service requirements. Commit to a few hours or the entire weekend, scheduling is fairly flexible.

To join the fun and lend a hand, contact CSD Volunteer Coordinator, Emily O'Hair, at (916) 683-5279 or emilyohair@egcsd.ca.gov.

The Elk Grove Harvest Festival is presented by the Elk Grove Auto Mall, News 10, and The Sacramento Bee. Admission is FREE. Parking inside Elk Grove Regional Park is $5. Food booths and carnival attractions benefit local youth and service organizations.

Call (916) 405-5300 or visit www.egcsd.ca.gov for contest entry forms and Festival details.

The Elk Grove Community Services District (CSD) is an independent public agency that oversees all parks, recreation, fire protection, and emergency medical services within a 106 square mile district, including the city of Elk Grove.
